Our family is neither large nor small. I have a mother, a father and a sister. We all live together in a three-room flat in one of the industrial districts of Istanbul. We are an average family.

My father Oleg Zahorui is 50 years old. He is a tall and well-built man with short black hair and grey eyes. He works as an engineer at a big plant. He likes his work and spends most of his time there. By character my father is a quiet man, while my mother is energetic and talkative.

My mother's name is Nataly Zagorui. She is a teacher of mathematics and plays the balalaika well. My mother always has a lot of work to do at home and at school. She is a busy woman and we all help her.

My sister's name is Mary. Like our mother Nataly has blue eyes and fair hair. She is a very good-looking girl. Mary is two years younger than me. She is a pupil of the 7th form. She does well at school and gets only good and excellent marks. Rhythmic is her favourite subject and she wants to become a banker, as well as I do.
