

1. 1. The clouds are leaving, and the sun is coming out. It won't rain anymore. 2. The weather is cold today. There's no reason to expect the weather to change. It will be cold tomorrow, too. 3. John, Sable and Kevin worked hard on this project. They will turn in the best work. The other students didn't work as hard. 4. Ronald is having a very difficult time in advanced algebra. He didn't understand anything that happened in class today, and he won't understand tomorrow's class either. 5. John skipped lunch today. He will eat as soon as he gets home. 6. I don't like parties. Ruth really wants me to come to her party, but I won't go. I'd rather stay home. 7. Conditions in the factory have been very bad for a long time. All people who work on the assembly line are angry. They will go out on strike. 8. We are using up the earth's resources at a rapid speed rate. We will continue to do so for years to come

2. 1. B: I'll listen to the news at six.

2. B: Yes. Give me your pencil. I will show you how to solve this.

3. B: I feel bad. I will lie down for a little while. If someone calls, please tell me I'll call back later.

4. B: It's okay. I'll give you a ride home.

5. B: I will buy a new pickup. I've already chosen that.

6. B: No, but I'll buy you an apple. How does this sound?

7. B: Yes. I will wear a dress to the floor.

A: Maybe I should wear a red dress with big sleeves. But I think it needs to be cleaned up.

B: I'll take it to the cleaning lady this afternoon when I go downtown if you want.

A: Oh, thanks. This will save me a trip.

3. Choose be going to or will for the following sentences.

— Why are you looking for a screwdriver? — One of the kitchen chairs has a loose screw. I am going to fix it.

— The computer printer isn't working again! What am I going to do?—Calm down. Give Bill a call. He will fix it for you. It's probably just a loose connection.

—Are you going to the post office soon?—Yeah. Why?

—I need to send this letter today.—I will mail it for you.

— Thanks.

—Why are you carrying that box?—I will mail it to my sister. I'm on my way to the post office.

—Let's meet for a beer after work?—Sounds good to me. I will meet you at the bar at six.

—Can you meet me for a beer after work?—I'd like to, but I can't. I'm going to stay at the office until seven tonight.

— It's grandfather's eighty-fifth birthday next Sunday. What will you give him for his birthday?—I will give him a walking stick that I made myself.

8. — I have a note for Jim from Julia. I don't know what to do with it. — Let me have it. I will give it to him. He's in my class.

— Thanks. But you have to promise not to read it.

4. 1. Sorry, I'll make you one more.

2. This year I decided not to go abroad.

3. I arranged to play tennis after work.

4. Where are you going to honeymoon?

5. I promise to refund your money on the weekend

6. Can you please tell me where you bought the cheap CDs? How many times I ask, but you cannot answer in any way.

7. Okay, I'll go have lunch with you, but I won't go to the movie because I've seen it before.

8. Despite the failure last year, I am confident that I will not fail this year. I did a lot and now I am completely ready to retake it. You

9. Can you not turn on the music so loudly? I have two children, don't you know? I am not against your music, but you need to have a conscience and do it not so loudly.

10. Wow!!! I'm very happy!!! I dreamed about it so much!!!!

5. 1. Anne used to close all doors and go to bed.

2. When I'm in London for two days, I'm going to visit the Tate Museum.

3. As soon as the curtain rises, the show starts.

4. After Nigel changes the oil in his car, he is going to take a bath.

5. We will call you back after we follow you.

6. I'll call you when I get a response from the bank about the loan.

7. As soon as I get my salary, I will pay the rent

6. 1. If I miss the bus this morning, I'll get a taxi instead. 2. We'll have to go without Pete if he doesn't arrive soon. 3. They won't refund your money if you haven't kept your receipt. 4. Will you send me a postcard when you reach Mexico? 5. If I make some coffee, will you cut the cake?

6. Did you work harder if you were better paid? 7. If you don't complain so much, you might be more popular. 8. Please don't sign any contracts before I'm checking them. 9. Wouldn't my friends be envious if they could only see me now!

1. День весілля Тома

Сьогодні дуже особливий день. Це день мого весілля, і тут вся моя сім'я та друзі. Усі чудово проводять час.

Моя дружина Джейн стоїть перед каміном. На ній гарне біле весільне плаття. Дядько Гаррі показує її фотографію, а тітка Емма плаче. (Вона дуже сентиментальна.)

Моя сестра і брат Джейн стоять у дворі, їдять весільний торт і розмовляють про політику. Наші дідусі і бабусі сидять у кутку, п'ють шампанське і розмовляють про «старі добрі часи». Усі гарно проводять час. Люди співають, танцюють, сміються, а наші сім'ї знайомляться. Це дуже особливий день.

2. I dream of a beautiful wedding where all my relatives will be :)